

A SALUTE TO SUNLL "SUNNY" AGHI

• Mr. KERRY. Mr. President, I want to take just a few moments today to salute one of the young leaders of the Indo-American community, someone who is providing for all of us an exemplary model of what it means to serve our neighborhoods, our communities, and our fellow Americans.

Mr. Sunll "Sunny" Aghi is the founder and President of the Indo-American Political Foundation, an organization based in California, dedicated to engaging Indo-Americans in the political process and ensuring that Indo-Americans gain a foothold in our government as elected officials. Sunll Aghi has brought an impressive energy to this mission—actively recruiting Indo-Americans to meet the challenges of participatory democracy as voters, supporters, and candidates, whether they be new citizens or established leaders in California's diverse communities.

Sunll has also found substantial ways to contribute to life in California beyond politics. Mr. Aghi is the founder of Thank You America—an organization dedicated to providing food and clothing to the homeless of Orange County each year on Thanksgiving Day, an effort which has benefits over 500 needy individuals each holiday. Sunll hopes to expand Thank You America's operations to eventually include providing college scholarships for talented, young Californians struggling to afford a college education. These efforts demonstrate to all of us the truth that DeTocqueville spoke of 150 years ago when he said "America is great because Americans are good." Sunll Aghi is keeping that tradition of civic responsibility alive and well for a new generation of our citizens.

Mr. President, I am pleased to have the chance to acknowledge Mr. Aghi for his contributions to our country and to the democratic process. I applaud his efforts and share his hopes that someday soon we will bring all Indo-Americans into the mainstream of American politics as full participants, and that in the coming years we will build an America where Indo-Americans serve in and are fully represented in the House, the Senate, and the Administration. His work is an inspiration to all of us, and I hope more Americans will follow his tremendous example of activism and citizenship raised to a higher level.●
